Who is providing this notice?

Clarity Credit Union

What We Do

How does Clarity Credit Union and its Affiliate Credit Union Organization, protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Clarity Credit Union and its Affiliate Credit Union Service Organization, collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Give us your income information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choice will apply to everyone on your account.
